

Bleepers Jeepers Grandkids Vocabulary Grows

Cumming, GA (AP) Rockstar Games, a subsidiary of Take-Two Interactive and creator of the video game Grand Theft Auto V, held a hasty press conference today and denied reports that their product prompted adverse behavioral effects in young players. "We take our bleeping games and our bleeping young gamers seriously," said spokesman Artie 'FM' Manuel, "and it isn't our bleeping fault if the bleeping Geissert kids hear a few bleeping bad words." When contacted for comment, Christian and Katie father, David 'Snooze' Geissert responded, "We haven't heard any bleeping problem."

Doggie Treats New Puppy A Quick Study

Cumming, GA (Reuters) The American Kennel Club (AKC) has formally recognized Sandra Dee 'Sandy' Bucchino, an adorable Terrier-Chihuahua mix puppy adopted by Jeff and Candy early in 2013, as one of the most highly trained canines in the country. "We have been astonished at the number of difficult tricks Sandy has learned in such a short time," marveled AKC President Newton 'Neuter' Spade, "and we have to applaud Jeff for his extraordinary efforts." The AKC press release listed some of the astounding behaviors that Sandy has mastered so far: heavy shedding, chewing on drywall, sleeping, and licking herself. "While teaching her to chew on drywall was a fairly straightforward and simple process," Jeff 'The Puppy Whisperer' explained, "showing her how to lick her butt took quite a while and gave me a really sore neck." Sandy's other master, Candy, was unavailable for comment and rumored to be hoarding mouthwash.

Finally, Change Hope Remains Elusive

Alpharetta, GA (UPI) The Board of Directors at Wells Fargo Bank, Inc. announced the recent employment of former Publix retail clerk April Geissert as a teller at a local north Georgia branch in a recent telephone interview. "We felt that the 25 billion in TARP funds we received from the government would finally place us in a financial position secure enough to allow adding April to our staff, and enhance our customer service." remarked Board spokesperson Debbie 'Debit' Kard, "And best of all, she knows which way that silly stagecoach logo is supposed to face. We can never remember, so we've put her in charge of that." Former Secretary of the Treasury Timothy 'Toxic' Geithner was unavailable for comment and reportedly under heavy sedation.

Galactic Mystery Space Case Reaches Milestone

Cumming, GA (AP) In the decade following the explosive news of the birth of Christian 'Arduino' Geissert, the world's first documented alien baby, and his alien sister Katie, scientists are no closer to unlocking the secrets of their birth. "While we haven't made much progress on details concerning how they came to be on this planet," explained the famed astrophysicist Mortimer 'Oort' Cloud, "we have learned quite a lot in the past 10 years by studying their behavioral processes in a controlled environment, mostly at our Matt Elementary laboratory." Published lab reports show that Christian is especially adept at algebra, reading and perhaps not coincidentally, technology of all kinds, especially astronomy. The younger alien, soon-to-be nine year old Katie, seems to have acclimated to life on earth reluctantly, clinging to extra-terrestrial tastes in music and pop culture such as Justin Bieber, Miley Cyrus, and Neil Diamond. Recent rumors suggest negotiations are underway between Capitol Hill and the White House to possibly place Christian in charge of the operationally-challenged Obamacare website. Calls to the White House press secretary for comment were not returned.

See More Mutts Canines Cause Chaos

Cumming, GA (Reuters) People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals (PETA) issued a sharply worded press release today, chastising April and David Geissert for irresponsibly starting what PETA characterized as "a potential puppy mill" in their home. "Even though both puppies may be adorable, fun and female," PETA spokeswoman Patty 'Carrot' Kaikae, said in a phone interview, "we feel the Geisserts are carelessly ignoring the tragic lessons we all learned from Jurassic Park. Nature will not be denied. Life, ah, finds a way." When asked for comment, Katie Geissert, co-owner of the two compact canines Valerie and Charlotte, yelled, "What do you call a bleeping blind dinosaur's dog? A bleeping Do-You-Think-He-Saurus-Rex!!" When contacted by our reporting staff, the spokesperson for Michael 'Extinct' Crichton's estate declined to comment.

*Merry Christmas
